

Tillamook County Junior Livestock Auction

The purpose of a Junior Livestock Auction is to showcase local 4-H and FFA livestock exhibitors and their market projects. These auctions provide a marketing venue for the culmination of the learning that has taken place in this year's project. These members develop:

Work ethic
Responsibility
Entrepreneurship Experience
Marketing Skills and Strategies
Recordkeeping and Financial Management Skills
Accountability
Leadership & Teamwork

We are proud to partner with Tillamook County 4-H and FFA programs to support these youth members. Not only do they learn valuable character and skill development, the meaning of responsibility and hard work – they learn the basics of running a small business.

At the fair, animals are judged by professional livestock evaluators to determine the sale order and give feedback to the exhibitors. When you purchase an animal at the Junior Livestock Auction, you are buying more than a prize-winning animal raised by 4-H & FFA members – YOU are establishing yourself as a PARTNER in helping young people in our community develop essential skills and attitudes.

Local businesses, organizations and individuals are invited to participate in this powerful learning experience and make a purchase to help our youth meet their goals, reward them for all of their hard work and their commitment to becoming the leaders of tomorrow.
